Donald J. Hutchinson is a co-manager of Goelzer Investment Management's Core Value Equity and Rising Dividends Equity strategies. He also co-manages the firm's non-traditional asset strategy. With 17 years of financial experience, Don has achieved an impressive record in the investment management industry. He has become a highly valued member of the firm's Investment Policy and Securities Selection & Review Committees.

Before joining Goelzer Investment Management in 2007, Don was Managing Director and Senior Vice President at JPMorgan Chase where he led a team with assets under management of $3.6 billion. Subsequent to that, he served as an Institutional Investment Consultant at Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc. where he co-managed an $8 billion institutional portfolio. He began his financial career in 1993 as Corporate Credit Analyst and Assistant Vice President of the Corporate Banking Group at Bank One Corporation.

Don is a licensed International Financial Analyst. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Financial Planning from Purdue University. Don was recognized in Indianapolis Monthly Magazine as a "FIVE STAR in Client Satisfaction Wealth Manager" in each year of the award's existence, 2008 - 2011. He serves as Treasurer for Cookies for Kid's Cancer Foundation. He is also a member of the John Purdue Club and Purdue University's President's Council.

Born in the northwest suburbs of Chicago, he is married to wife Beth, has two children, Ben and Nathan. He is an avid beach volleyball player and has competed on the EVP Tour in the past.
