Chris Ryker is a co-manager of Goelzer Investment Management's Core Value Equity and Rising Dividends Equity strategies. With nearly three decades of investment advisory and portfolio management experience, his expertise in equity and fixed income analysis complements our investment team of professionals. He has become a highly valued member of the firm's Investment Policy and Securities Selection & Review Committees and guides the firm's fixed income securities strategies.

Prior to joining Goelzer, Chris was a Vice President and Portfolio Manager with National City Bank's Private Client Group, where he directed client equity and fixed income investments totaling over $900 million. Previous to his position at National City Bank, he was a Vice President at Trust Investment Advisors of Indianapolis where he was responsible for equity analysis, trading, investment strategy, and portfolio management. Chris began his career with the State of Indiana's Department of Financial Institutions in 1980 as a bank examiner. He subsequently joined Indiana Bancshares of Greenwood, where he served as its Vice President and Controller and also managed investment portfolios, mortgage sales, bank accounting and regulatory reporting.

Chris holds a B.A. degree in Business Economics and Public Policy from Indiana University and is a graduate of the Advanced Bank Management Program of the University of Wisconsin School of Banking. A Chartered Financial Analyst ("CFA"), Chris's professional memberships include the CFA Institute and the CFA Society of Indianapolis. Chris serves on the Financial Council of SS Francis and Clare Catholic Church.

In 2011, Chris was recognized in Indianapolis Monthly Magazine as a "FIVE STAR in Client Satisfaction Wealth Manager" for the Indianapolis market.

Born in Oldenburg, Indiana, Chris currently resides in Greenwood with his wife Tarra and their two daughters.
