With over 33 years of financial accounting and reporting experience within the investment industry, Debra serves as Controller of Goelzer Investment Management. She is responsible for maintaining the firm's books and records, preparation of monthly financial statements and regulatory reports, and the administration of the firm's employee benefit plans and payroll.

Prior to joining Goelzer in 2002, Debra oversaw financial control functions at the Indiana firms Voelz Financial Services and Roney & Company. She began her career at Indianapolis-based Traub & Co., where for over 20 years she had growing responsibility for financial accounting and reporting.

Debra is a FINRA-registered General Securities Representative (Series 7), General Securities Principal (Series 24), and Financial and Operations Principal (Series 27). She also holds the Uniform Securities Agent State Law license (series 63). She has completed career-related coursework at Indiana University and Purdue University.

Debra enjoys an active family life. She manages to find time for gardening, reading, and attending sporting events.
