Doug Wade is an investment professional with over five decades of experience. He provides investment advice and counsel on behalf of Goelzer Investment Management's individual clients utilizing the firm's traditional brokerage and investment advisory platforms.

Prior to joining Goelzer in 1991, Doug was a Senior Account Executive with the Prescott Ball & Turben division of Kemper Securities Group in their Indianapolis office. For the 17 previous years, he was an investment counselor with Prescott's predecessor in Indianapolis, the NYSE member firm of Moseley Hallgarten Estabrook & Weeden, Inc.

Doug was recognized in Indianapolis Monthly Magazine as a "FIVE STAR in Client Satisfaction Wealth Manager" in each year of the award's existence, 2008 - 2011.

A native of Indianapolis, Doug graduated from Indiana University with a B.A. degree in 1958. After service as a United States Army officer in Germany, he returned to Indianapolis in 1961 to begin his investment career. Doug has long been active in civic, educational, and philanthropic organizations. In 1990, he completed a four-year term as an elected member of the Lawrence Township Advisory Board, serving as Finance Committee Chairman and Chairman Pro-tem. From 1979-1980, he served as Chairman of the Board of Commissioners for the Indianapolis Public Housing Authority. A past President of the Indiana State Museum Foundation, he continues to serve the organization's statewide interest as an Honorary Director. As an elder of the Second Presbyterian Church, he chaired the Finance and Administration Committee. Formerly a Trustee and an officer of the Indiana Chapter of the Nature Conservancy, Doug is now a Life Trustee. In addition, Doug is Past President of The Contemporary Club of Indianapolis, and the Players Club.

Doug and his wife Ann have three grown sons, and four grandchildren.
