With 34 years of financial advisory, fiduciary, and investment management experience, Max Kime joined Goelzer Investment Management's team of investment professionals in 2009 as a Senior Investment Advisor. He brings expertise in trust, management and administration. Max offers significant value to the firm's clients in all matters pertaining to investment advisory and trust services.

Prior to joining Goelzer Investment Management, Max was a Vice President & Senior Trust Officer at JPMorgan Chase, the corporate successor to both Bank One Corp and Indianapolis-based American Fletcher Corporation. During his 31-years at JPMorgan his responsibilities included portfolio management, trust and investment account administration, and business development. Max was a Registered Representative with Dean Witter in 1977 and 1978. Previous to that, he was a Hearings Officer and Labor Mediator with the Indiana Education Employment Relations Board.

Max was recognized in Indianapolis Monthly Magazine as a "FIVE STAR in Client Satisfaction Wealth Manager" in each year of the award's existence, 2008 - 2011.

Max is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Purdue University, where he obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy. He also holds a Master of Science degree in Industrial Relations from Purdue's Krannert School of Management.

Max is a Life Member of the Purdue Alumni Association and the Purdue University President's Council, and is a past Board member of the Ensemble Music Society of Indianapolis. He was a member of the Salon Society of Indianapolis and served several years on the Outstanding Alumni Selection Committee for Purdue's School of Liberal Arts. Max has taught the undergraduate Personal Finance class at the Indiana University School of Business as an Adjunct Instructor.

Max has lived in Indianapolis for 35 years. He enjoys time with his family and studying languages. He speaks fluent French and is a member of Alliance Française.
